The background image shows a peaceful residential scene. In the foreground, there are green, leafy branches of a tree or shrub, slightly out of focus. Behind them is a calm pond that reflects the sky and the surrounding greenery. In the distance, several modern houses with dark roofs and light-colored siding are visible under a blue sky with scattered white clouds. A dark blue rounded rectangle is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing white text.

Land Acknowledgement

The Town of Rocky Mountain House wishes to acknowledge that the land on which we gather is Treaty 6 Territory and a traditional meeting ground and home for many Indigenous Peoples, including the Blackfoot, Cree, Saulteaux, Stoney and Métis.

A winter scene with a snow-covered riverbank and a bridge structure in the background. The bridge has a steel truss design and the letters 'SBA 7' are visible on its side. The foreground shows a snow-covered bank with some bare branches. The background is a hazy, overcast sky.

How to use This Document

Like many municipalities in Canada and around the world, Alberta's economy continues to evolve in the post-pandemic context. Recognizing new challenges and opportunities, Rocky Mountain House has made a diversified and prosperous economy a key strategic priority. To track progress, information on the health of the local economy should be readily available to residents, the business community, and other economic development partners—new or established.

This community profile has been created to provide easy access to data in a centralized location and includes key indicators for Rocky Mountain House's labour force, demographics, livability, and economic development. New data and metrics will be added over time in consultation with the Town's economic development partners.

Top economic indicators are presented as a series of infographic pages at the front of this document. A more detailed breakdown can be viewed at the top of each chapter, allowing users to dig deeper into the data. An About the Data section has been included to describe the sources of data used, and the importance of the metrics to the Town's economy.

Community Snapshot

Rocky Mountain House is a town in west-central Alberta, Canada located west of the city of Red Deer at the confluence of the Rocky Mountain House and North Saskatchewan Rivers, and at the crossroads of Highway 22 (Cowboy Trail) and Highway 11 (David Thompson Highway).

In 1799, the Hudson's Bay Company and the North West Company each established the Rocky Mountain House and Acton House fur trading posts. Trade with the local Indigenous peoples continued until 1821 when the companies merged, they continued to trade until 1875 and closed the Rocky Mountain House post. The name of the settlement however remained. Many travelers used this location as a stop on their way further west or northwest, just as they do into the 21st century.

Demographics

Language

Nearly one thousand (894, or 12.1%) Rocky Mountain House residents speak a non-official language.

Household and Earnings

- 17% of Rocky Mountain House's homeowners spend 30% or more of household total income on shelter costs.

- In 2024, median total income for all Rocky residents 15 years and over was $46,423.
- In 2024, the average and median incomes for households in Rocky Mountain House were lower in comparison to Alberta figures.

Takeaways

1. From 2006 to 2021 the Town's population declined slightly, though most of that reduction came between 2011 and 2016 (-4.3% over that Census Period)).
2. As of 2025 it is estimated that the Town's population is above 7,300 residents, with projected rates of growth in line with provincial figures over the next two five-year periods.
3. This leads to an overall projected population of 8,159 by 2035, an increase of over 1,200 residents since 2011.
4. The Town has a larger relative population of youth (0-19 years old) than Alberta, suggesting there is an opportunity for significant economic growth if this population is retained into adulthood.
5. The most common "non-official" languages residents speak is Tagalog.

The average age in Rocky Mountain House is 40 compared to the provincial figure of 39.

Population Size and Growth

After a period of relatively minimal growth (or contraction, as between 2011 and 2016), the community is poised to have high growth rates over the next 10 years. Future growth is expected to be more similar to the province, with rates of growth of 5.5% and 4.9% locally, compared to 7.0% and 6.2% provincially. The following table illustrates past population growth based on survey data (Statistics Canada), as well as the estimated current and future population from Manifold SuperDemographics.

Mobility status refers to the relationship between a person's usual place of residence now and either one or five years ago.

Non-movers are persons who were living at the same address and Movers are persons who were living at a different address.

Non-migrants are movers who, on Census Day, were living at a different address, but in the same census subdivision (CSD).

Migrants are movers who were residing in a different CSD (internal migrants) or who were living outside Canada (external migrants).

Housing Characteristics

On average, residents of Rocky Mountain House face significantly lesser housing costs, both in terms of dwelling values (initial purchase) and through monthly shelter costs compared to Alberta (Table 9). This leads to fewer residents (17%) spending 30% or more of their household incomes on housing costs compared to Alberta households (21%).

Compared to many smaller communities across Alberta and Canada, Rocky Mountain House has an envious distribution of dwelling types. That is, while the number of single detached houses is higher than Alberta as a whole, this is largely because the larger urban centres (Edmonton, Calgary) have a much higher concentration of apartments. To have rates that are fairly comparable to the province suggests that the Town has a nice mix of varied dwellings, offering different dwelling types to residents with different dwelling needs and across different income classes.

Interestingly, given the population growth projected, new dwelling constructions in Rocky Mountain House have slowed considerably. This is perhaps in response to the declining population experienced in the early 2010s, though it will likely need to reverse course to maintain the Town’s affordable dwelling values.

Labour Force

Key Indicators

Rocky Mountain House is home to a labour force of nearly 4,000 persons.

Labour Force Commute

- Rocky Mountain House's labour force typically remains within the Town, as fewer than 10% of residents commute outside the Town for work.

- Local businesses, however, rely heavily on labour residing outside the community, as less than half of local jobs are filled by residents, with a majority filled by people living next door in Clearwater County.

Takeaways

When analyzing the town's labour force, it can be seen that:

- Economic engagement rates (participation, employment, unemployment) are similar to provincial figures.
- Town residents are heavily engaged in sales and service occupations, with the retail trades sector also being the most heavily concentrated industry of employment.
- Only 5% of residents work from home, reflective of the fact that the most prevalent industries and occupations are retail- and trades-based, both of which require work in a physical location outside the home.

Top 5 Sectors by Industry*

Key Indicators

Rocky Mountain House has a labour force that is 3,994 persons strong. As illustrated in the infographic, participation, employment, and unemployment rates are comparable with provincial marks, suggesting an economically engaged community.

Table 11: Labour Force Characteristics, 2025

- The largest occupation for employment is sales and service occupations, employing over a quarter of the population (26.9%).
- This is followed by trades, transport and equipment operators and related occupations (861 residents employed).
- Both sectors are more prevalent locally (higher percentage) than provincially, though only slightly.

Labour Force by Industry

A similar breakdown for the Town’s workforce can be applied to industries as was applied to occupations. To that end, Figure 7 and Table 13 illustrate Rocky Mountain House’s labour force make up by industry of employment:

- The retail trade industry represented nearly 15% of the labour pool, again slightly higher than the provincial mark.
- The Town’s economy is fairly diversified, with five sectors representing more than 9.5% of resident jobs.

Transportation and Logistics

Transportation Links

The Rocky Mountain House Airport is located 5.6 km north northeast of Rocky Mountain House, and is jointly owned by the Town of Rocky Mountain House and Clearwater County. The airport has a licensed 5,000 ft (1,524 m) runway, with the existing runway surface extending 6,000 ft (1,828 m) over gravel base.

The Airport welcomes private and commercial aircraft year-round. The Rocky Mountain House Airshow takes place every two to three years, and draws thousands of spectators from across Alberta.

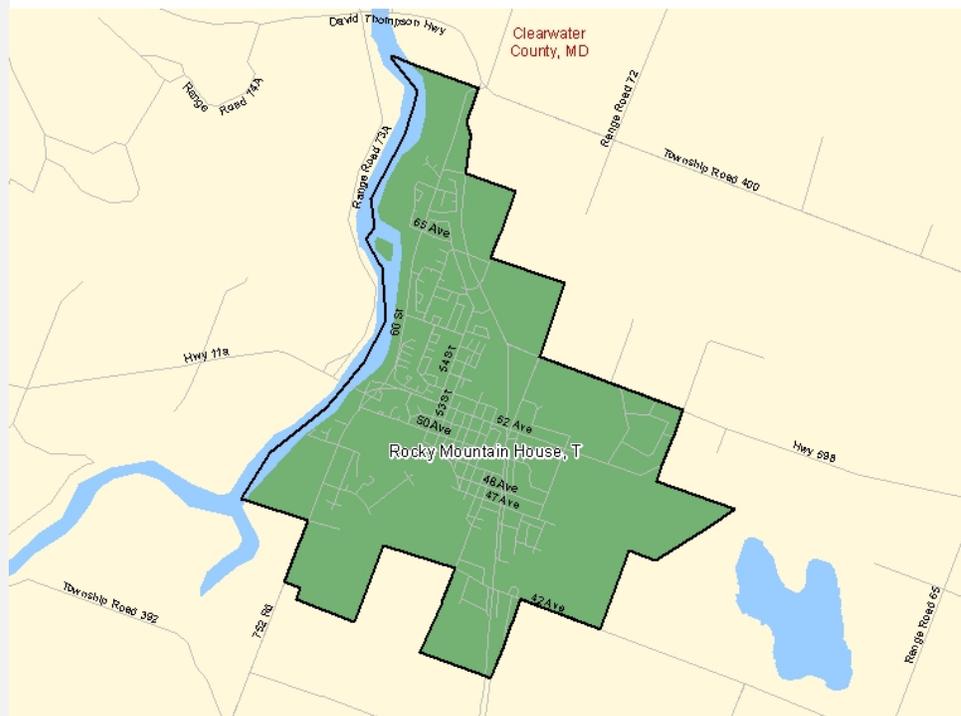

A permanent designated aerobatic practice space makes the Rocky Mountain House Airport a popular spot for aerobatic pilots to train. The airport hosts an Aerobatics Canada contest each year, usually in late August or early September.

Additionally, Rocky Mountain House is near 2 international airports – Edmonton International Airport, and Calgary International Airport, both approximately 2 hours away.

Location

Rocky Mountain House's role as a regional service hub leads to a diversified economy. Rocky Mountain House is situated at the crossroads of Highway 22 (Cowboy Trail) and Highway 11 (David Thompson Highway). Alberta Provincial Highway No. 22, commonly referred to as Highway 22 and officially named Cowboy Trail, is a 584-kilometre (363 mile) highway that parallels Highway 2, beginning in the foothills of southern Alberta at Highway 3.

Rocky Mountain House is the last major stop into the backcountry on the David Thompson Highway with easy access to Red Deer.

Climate

Rocky Mountain House climatic data was retrieved from the Government of Alberta’s Agriculture and Forestry Climate Information Services. Table 16 and Figure 8 illustrate average precipitation levels and temperatures.

Rail Services

The nearest commercial rail services are Calgary and Edmonton, which are serviced by both CN Rail and Canadian Pacific. VIA Rail offers an intermodal connection at Edmonton from a Red Arrow Motorcoach to a VIA rail train.

CN Rail

CN Rail is a leader in the North American rail industry. CN provides shippers with more options and greater reach in the rapidly expanding market for north-south trade.

CPKC

CPKC is the combination of two historic railways – Canadian Pacific (CP) and Kansas City Southern (KCS). Since 2023, CPKC is the first and only transnational railway that connects Canada, the U.S. and Mexico with unrivaled cross-border services and port access.

VIA Rail

Taxes and Utilities

Clean Energy Improvement Plan

In an effort to continually promote clean energy uptake and protect the environment, Rocky Mountain House offers low-interest financing and rebates for green home energy evaluations, which can be stacked with federal grants. This initiative helps residents embrace sustainable living and protects Rocky Mountain's House incredible natural vistas.

Overview

This section describes the taxes (local, provincial and federal), cost of water and sewer connection, waste management sites, natural gas and electricity rates, and communication infrastructure.

Local utilities have seen significant investments and improvements over the last few years as the town continues to address local quality of life. Specifically, a new wastewater treatment plan is nearing completion and will service up to 9,000 residents, replacing the existing lagoon.

Highway 11 is also currently seeing significant improvements, with twinning construction underway and set to be complete prior to 2030.

Federal and Provincial Income Tax Rates

Tables 18 and 19 provide federal and provincial corporate tax rates, while Table 20 provides income tax data. Please note that within Table 18, Alberta provides a manufacturing and processing tax credit that effectively reduces the corporate tax rate on the corporation’s Canadian manufacturing and processing profits earned in the province to 10%.

Alberta’s Goods and Services Tax (GST) Rate for 2025 is 5%.

Water/Wastewater and Waste Management

Water Treatment

Located on the banks of the North Saskatchewan River, the Town operates a Class III surface water treatment plant. Having recently undergone a major upgrade, the treatment processes with the plant are as follows:

- Chlorination
- Coagulant Injection / Flash Mixing
- PALL Pressure Membrane Micro-filtration
- Up-flow Solids Contact Clarification
- UV Irradiance

The current capacity of the plant is 8,000m<sup>3</sup> / day. Water distribution is accomplished from the plant clear-well and reservoir with a total storage capacity of 6,000m<sup>3</sup>.

Wastewater Treatment

The Town currently operates a Class I aerated lagoon located just east of Highway 11 southeast of 71 Avenue. A Septage Receiving Station is also located at the lagoon site to allow bulk sewage to be discharged at this facility. Haulers must enter into a Sewage Dumping Agreement with the Town prior to utilizing the facility.

In 2023, the Town broke ground on a Class III Sequencing Batch Reactor Regional Wastewater Treatment Facility.

The Town of Rocky Mountain House does not make a profit on utilities, and only charges what it costs to deliver utility services to residents and businesses.

Commercial Solid Waste and Recycling

The Town stopped invoicing businesses for commercial waste tonnage in November 2020. Commercial businesses now have service and billing arrangements directly with commercial haulers.

No commercial waste will be accepted at the Rocky Mountain House Eco Centre. Town businesses are welcome to use the Eco Centre for recycling and diversion programs.

The owners/landlords of Apartment Buildings, Residential Complexes, Mobile Home Parks and multi-plexes not approved for curbside Collection Service must arrange and pay for Waste Material collection services from a private commercial waste hauler, including the payment of any tipping fees to the private commercial waste hauler.

For your convenience, here is a list of commercial haulers currently providing commercial waste and/or recycling service within Rocky Mountain House:

- Go Services Inc. (403-342-9950)
- Waster (403-357-4197)
- WasteCo (403-352-7800)
- R&L Energy (403-846-8143)
- Empringham Disposal (403-392-3870)
- Waste Management (780-440-5855)
- Waste Connections (403-343-1691)

Table 22: Waste Collection Fees (Effective 2025)

Notes: Effective March 1, 2024, The Town reserves the right to determine the types of property that qualify for the Waste and Organics Collection Cart service. For those residential properties in Town that do not qualify for the Waste and Organics Collection Cart Service, the Non-Residential Premises Monthly Rate will apply, however access to and use of the Rocky Mountain House Eco Centre will be provided.

Table 23: Eco Centre Fees (Effective 2025)

Notes: Town residents and businesses will be issued a Rocky Pass with Eco Centre access when they visit the Eco Centre for the first time, with proof of Town address, such as: Utility invoice with street address; rent receipt with street address; or Driver’s license showing street address.

No commercial waste will be accepted at the Rocky Mountain House Eco Centre. Town businesses are welcome to use the Eco Centre for recycling and diversion programs.

As of April 1, 2021, all users must show their Rocky Pass for Eco Centre access. Any loads that are larger than a half ton box sized load must go to the Regional Landfill for disposal.

Recycling / Chemicals / Paints / Oils / Yard Waste / Grass Clippings / Metal / Batteries, etc. will all remain free.

Non-residents can access the Eco Centre by purchasing a Rocky Pass with Eco Centre Access to dispose of divertible materials. The Rocky Pass with Eco Centre Access is available for purchase at the Eco Centre, 4511 – 42 Street, during regular operating hours. Cards can also be purchased at the Town Office at 5116 – 50th Avenue, Rocky Mountain House.

Communication Infrastructure

Clearwater County's Broadband Internet project is underway, bringing reliable high-speed internet to the community of Rocky Mountain House. The network will operate as an Open Access platform—a shared infrastructure that allows multiple service providers to offer their services over the same fibre. This approach gives users the freedom to choose from various service providers and packages, which can lower costs for consumers and improve service quality. Open Access promotes competition, optimizes network resources, and ensures users have the power to select the services that best meet their needs.

As a community-owned network, the revenues generated will be reinvested locally, ensuring that ownership and control remain in the hands of Clearwater County residents. This self-sustaining model paves the way for business growth and improved services.

Clearwater County secured substantial grants from Innovation, Science, and Economic Development Canada and the Government of Alberta, covering up to 75% of the costs. This project is funded through the Universal Broadband Fund, a Canadian federal initiative with additional support from the Alberta provincial government. The funding aims to bring reliable, high-speed internet to rural and underserved areas within the county.

Building and Development

No Offsite Levies

The Town of Rocky Mountain House has eliminated off-site levies for new development! Effective July 15, 2025, subdivisions and developments will no longer be subject to off-site levy fees.

Non-Residential Development Tax Incentive

The Non-Residential Tax Incentive Bylaw allows new commercial or industrial developments, or expansions of existing developments, to apply for tax exemptions based on the value of the development.

Non-Residential Land Development Tax Incentive

The Non-Residential Land Development Tax Incentive Bylaw allows for a reduction in the mill rate applied to non-residential vacant lots subject to a development agreement. This program begins January 1, 2025.

Development Incentives

Economic development is a crucial aspect of the Town of Rocky Mountain House's growth and prosperity, impacting various facets of community life, from employment opportunities to quality of infrastructure.

The goals of Town of Rocky Mountain House development incentives are to:

- stimulate development of non-residential and residential lots;
- expand on existing non-residential properties; and
- help with development costs for existing vacant non-residential properties to be occupied.

For more information about all the incentives the Town has to offer, please visit: <https://rockymtnhouse.com/p/development-incentives>

New Business Established in an Existing Vacant Building

If a non-residential building has been vacant for 180 days or more, the Town of Rocky Mountain House is willing to offset 1/3 of the costs for a Development Permit and or Building Permit fees if required for a new business or an existing business transferring. The Town will also offset 1/3 of the costs for the Business License fee that is required for that new business to be located at that location. Existing businesses would qualify if moving to a larger square footage compared to their previous location.

Community Assets

Health Centre Expansion

Completed in 2024, Rocky Mountain House Health Centre has opened a new operating room to support the surgical program and upgrade medical device reprocessing department. This potentially doubles the capacity of the local Health Centre with respect to surgical procedures, bringing more procedures closer to home and increasing efficiency across Alberta's Health Services.

Quality of Life

Rocky Mountain House has everything everyone wants and needs to satisfy their craving for adventure: awe-inspiring scenery, fascinating history, exciting culture, endless recreation for every season, and excellent amenities to make your stay seamless.

The area is well known for its many natural attractions and its history. This includes Abraham Lake, Nordegg, the North Saskatchewan River, the Rocky Mountain House National Historic site, the Ya Ha Tinda, Crescent Falls, Siffleur Falls, and many mountains, rivers, lakes, and wilderness areas.

This area is Alberta's favourite playground. It offers something for everyone to enjoy, and the vast array of opportunities and activities are why so many people have chosen to make this their home.

Rocky Mountain House Public Library

Rocky Mountain House is served by the Parkland Regional Library system, offering a variety of programming, including preschool programs, such as story-time for children; programs for older children and teens, such as summer reading clubs; and free computer and internet access for all library members. The Rocky Mountain House Public Library hosts a showcase cinema program in partnership with the Rocky Cinemas, which runs eight movies over the year. The Rocky library also houses a gallery space that hosts a different Canadian artist each month on an on-going basis.

Rocky Museum

The Rocky Museum showcases the history of the pioneers who homesteaded in this area, worked in the lumber camps and sawmills, and sent their children to one-room schoolhouses. Our exhibits include the Meadows Forestry cabin, which is one hundred years old, and the Glacier School house.

Rocky Mountain House National Historic Site

Discover a historic trading post along the North Saskatchewan River and immerse yourself in stories of Indigenous Peoples and legendary explorers. Experience interactive exhibits, a play fort, bison viewing, walking and biking trails, camping, friendly heritage presenters, and more.

Marketplace on Main

Come out to experience this vibrant, local tradition! This open-air market offers snacks from many different tasty food stalls, fresh local produce from fruit and vegetable vendors, live entertainment and treasures from artisan vendors. The Town's annual market is a popular summertime attraction that runs Thursday nights and provides an opportunity for local businesses and community members to network and engage.

About the Data

Please note that every effort has been made to use the most current data available. The major sources of information for this document are:

- The 2006, 2011, 2016 and 2021 Census from Statistics Canada.
- Manifold SuperDemographics data is from 2025 Manifold Data Mining Inc.

The most recent Census was conducted in May 2021. SuperDemographics 2025 is the most up to date estimation of population characteristics, based on mathematical models that draw from various data sources.

Manifold Projection Method:

---

Manifold estimates demographic data annually, including population projections for 5 and 10 years in the future. Manifold data sources include Statistics Canada, Health Canada, real estate boards/companies, Canadian Bankers Association, Bank of Canada, Canada Post Corporation, consumer and business directories books, flyer distribution association, regional health ministries, Citizenship and Immigration Canada, regional school boards, proprietary survey and research, and publications of hospitals, CM HC, BBM and partners.
