Note:

1. As per Section 685)(3) of the Municipal Government Act; Despite subsections (1) and (2), no appeal lies in respect of the issuance of a development permit for a permitted use unless the provisions of the land use bylaw were relaxed, varied or misinterpreted or the application for the development permit was deemed to be refused under section 683.1(8).
2. The issuance of a Development Permit in accordance with the Notice of Decision is subject to the condition that it does not become effective until twenty-one (21) days after the date of decision.
3. The Land Use Bylaw provides that any person claiming to be affected by a decision of the Development Officer may appeal to the Subdivision Development Appeal Board by serving written notice of appeal to the Secretary of the Subdivision Development Appeal Board within twenty-one (21) days after the date the Development Permit is issued.
4. Any development proceeded with, by the applicant prior to the expiry of the twenty-one (21) day period is done solely at the risk of the applicant.
5. This permit is effective for a period of twelve (12) months from the date of its issue, or the date of decision of the Subdivision Development Appeal Board confirming it. If at the expiry of this period, the development has not commenced or carried out with reasonable diligence, this permit ceases to be effective, unless an extension to the period has been previously granted by the Development Officer.
6. Compliance with the requirements of the Land Use Bylaw does not exempt any person from the requirements of any federal, provincial, or municipal legislation or complying with any easement, covenant, agreement or contract affecting development.
7. Prior to any work being performed within the municipal right of way an excavation permit must be obtained from the Engineering and Operations Department.
