Acknowledgement of Indigenous Peoples

The Town of Rocky Mountain House wishes to acknowledge that the land on which we gather is Treaty 6 Territory and a traditional meeting ground and home for many Indigenous Peoples, including the Blackfoot, Cree, Saulteaux, Stoney and Métis.

Fees, Rates and Charges bylaw 2020/01

Council amended its Fees, Rates and Charges bylaw to clarify there is no charge for drop-in use of the tennis and pickleball courts. Charges apply to court reservations only, and reserved courts will take precedence over drop-in play. Fees for fireworks and burn permits were also added, to reflect the new Fireworks Bylaw and Fire Rescue Services and Fire Control Bylaw adopted on June 16, 2020.

Intersection Improvement at 48 Street and 53 Avenue

The Town of Rocky Mountain House will undertake intersection improvements at the corner of 48 Street and 53 Ave, at the southeast corner of Curtis Field. The concrete medians will be removed, and north- and southbound traffic will be able to turn onto 53 Ave. from 48 St. Likewise, eastbound traffic from 53 Ave. will be able to turn north and south. The $125,000 cost will be covered by the road reserve.
